T. B. Test Starts November 25

Plans for tuberculin tests to be given to MSM students are now complete, and mass testing will begin November 25. Tests will be given at the MSM hospital with Dr. Fiend in charge.

The test to be given will be the new Vollmer "Patch test." This test is ardently endorsed by the Council on Pharmacy and Chemistry of the American Medical Association for early diagnosis of tuberculosis. It consists of an adhesive patch treated with chemicals which react with tuberculin germs present in the body. A positive reaction does not mean that tuberculosis is active within the body. The test may be positive if the body has been exposed to tuberculosis or has become sensitized to the disease.

The patch is applied to the back or chest and allowed to remain for two days and the patch must be returned to the physician within four days. If the action is positive, further examination will be given to determine the exact nature of the disease in the body. The test is painless and requires only two minutes to administer.

Students will be notified from the Registrar's office as to the time when they will take the tests. Tests are to be given daily except Wednesday and Sundays.

Much work has been done in securing this test for the student body. The testing is for the benefit of the student only.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Photo Club Friday night, motion was taken to procure several pieces of new equipment for the darkroom including an electric fan, an adjustable film tank, and an enlargometer. It was decided that several of the pieces of equipment now in the dark room should be repaired, thus saving the expense of buying this equipment. A committee was appointed to investigate any repairs that might be necessary in the dark room proper. Members of the club are reminded that each member is required to turn in one dollar a month for the bulletin board in Norwood Hall. So far this year only one print has been given.

The Collegiate Digest Salon played at the Lloyd Shop was sent through the courtesy of the Photo Club of MSM. This week, the display will be sent on its destination to Washington University.

The club consists of twenty members this year. Anyone interested in joining come to the meeting held the first Friday in the month at 104 Norwood Hall.

Blue Key Pledges Become Actives

Ten pledges of Blue Key, National Honor Fraternity, were formally initiated as active members at a banquet held Sunday evening at the Pennant Tavern. The initiates were Ken Vaughan, Fred Radvich, Ray Kasten, Don Coolidge, Bob Eck, Henry Kuruz, Joe Berndt, Kent Comann, Enos Key and Rene Rasmussen.

Captain Vernon Asher, Corps of Engineers, of Ft. Leonard Wood was the main speaker for the evening. His talk concerned the service of one to himself, to his school and to his country. Noel Hubbard also gave a brief talk. Doctor Barley, head of the Englisir department acted as toastmaster for the evening.

Dusza '40 Speaks To Ceramic Society

Joe T. Dusza, '40, who is employed by the Harbison-Walker Refractories Company of East Chicago, Indiana, spoke on the "Manufacture of Silica Bricks" at the meeting of the American Ceramic Society last Monday. Mr. Dusza, who was president of the MSM chapter of Theta Kappa Phi last year, was hired by this company following his graduation in May, 1940. He explained the various processes and technique used in the manufacture of the bricks.

The Harbison-Walker Company is chiefly concerned with the manufacture of silica bricks which are used as lining in furnaces in which steel products are made. These bricks are manufactured from a mineral known as gannister.

They are formed by a mechanical press or by beating the powdered gannister into a mould with a power-driven hammer, and then fired at high temperatures.

Tau Beta Pi May Elect Alumnus

At the meeting of Tau Beta Pi, Tuesday afternoon, a committee was appointed for choosing some MSM alumnus for election to Tau Beta Pi as an honorary member—that is, some man who was not elected to Tau Beta Pi while here in school, but who has since distinguished himself in his chosen profession.

Secondly, a committee was appointed to look into the possibilities of publishing a freshman handbook. This would be a pamphlet issued to all freshmen on entering school, and containing various bits of information that would be helpful to freshmen in their studies. This would include various campus information, freshman rules, use of English in engineering, use of a slide rule, and simple mathematical tables.

3000 See Parade

In one of the largest Armistice Day ceremonies Rolla has had in many years, the Missouri School of Mines Reserve Officers' Training Corps Regiment and a detachment of artillery from Fort Wood passed in review down Pine Street yesterday morning at 10:30. The troops were reviewed by Colonel Ryder of Fort Wood.

After passing in review the regiment reformed on the lower athletic field where a competitive drill was held. The drill was won by Wesley Doginoff, a Sophomore. Wesley is a member of the Detonators.

Immediately following this drill the regiment was addressed briefly by Colonel Ryder who commended the regiment for their fine showing. The theme of his address was "The Qualities of a Good Officer."

Following his address a return of the colors was executed and the regiment was dismissed. Approximately three thousand people viewed the parade and drill.

CoOps Giving Shipwreck Dance

Next Saturday night at nine bells the officers, crew, and guests of the liner S. S. TriCoOp will assemble on the promenade deck for a super-stupendous session of swinging, singing, and swaying. Dancing in the massive, battered hulk of the tragic shipwreck will be quite a radical departure from conventionality, but a swell time is sure to be had by all. The music will be furnished by Steward Eric Casey and his Well-Soaked Bilge Rats, featuring Cabin-boy Kenny Meyers and his fog-horn solos. The dance will neither be formal nor informal and, by the Captain's orders, all present must be dressed exactly as they were at the time that the ship was wrecked—even if that means wearing your BVD's. Rescuers are not expected to reach the marooned ship for several days and this is the commanding officer's plan for cheering the weary, but nevertheless light-hearted passengers.

Repeating the Captain's orders in full: All present must be dressed exactly as they were the night that the S. S. TriCoOp was wrecked and beached. Entrance to the promenade deck can be secured only by going through Mr. Chuzzlewit's porthole on the forward end of the poop-deck. Life preservers will be issued to all persons upon entering the ship. Be sure to get one. Prisoners from

And so yesterday we celebrated the Armistice of nations. With a selective service act in the U. S., with an R. A. F. raid on Berlin, with the Luftwaffe raining fire on the British Isles, an Italian teaming sides opposite the ex-Allies . . . and classes on the M. S. M. campus. Have we forgotten so soon?

The Kappa Sigs weren't even worried about the international situation last Saturday night. Exemplary of the affair was Dick Brackett. One of the guests, after a period of time, began missing his date. Dropped down into that abyssal basement to check up. Found Brack sittin' on her lap. Brack jumped up with handkerchief in hand. 'Nuff said. That's one frat-house that's well equipped for drop-ins. Ideal set-up. Practically no chaperones in sight. And with Winkle and Heinicke in the basement frying mustard, catsup, and red pepper on the grill . . . sure could be a fine party.

The Stephens gals stopped building airdrop planes for a week-end and dropped down to treat the boys. The parade, led by Tomato Queen Spaulding met opposition from the charmers from Kansas U. Vic's little Charlotte and another refuge from a sweater. Incidentally, some kind soul really should tip Jackie off that the loff-affairs of the three musketeers are finalled. There ain't no more . . . but the boys all like you.

The Miners' own lil . . . hmmm . . . Mary Sands chasin' big Ralph Ruwwe and, so rumor has it, winning over her chief competitor. For Keith's sake, we'll forget the rest. And Mary, you can thank your friend Louise, for the publicity.

Funniest scene of the week . . . Reid DeForest and Stretch Meyers at the Pennant last Thursday night sipping cawfee. Reid wanting to bounce the cup off the head of the drunk standing at the counter . . . "just to see if he could do it." Drunk number three objected, and Stretch was the one that almost got in the fight.

Stowell and Hazel made a nice couple, too, on Thursday night. Remember? after the Blue Key "Outing." And Bob tried so-o-o hardd to keep awake . . . during band-practice, during the show, and at the Peanut.

Frosh Jim Ranes, when asked where his cap and suspenders were replied, "I'll do as I please on Sunday." Now, lil Jimmie, that's hardly the attitude to take. Remember, the Frisco Pond hasn't quite frozen over yet. Seems that Prof might enforce some of these traditions that back his paycheck.

In passing . . . Prof. Miles nosing over that plane a week or so ago . . . Comann getting his dander up, because he had to attend class and couldn't make that date . . . the Shamrock christening Boy Virgin Burke . . . the bon vivant that Radavich finally turned out to be . . . the string section of the Varsity Orchestra griping about the carelessness of the brasses early one ayem.

Back to the subject. You know fellas, this Armistice Day business is the first real thing we've found to kick about in the new policy. The Rotsy unit has to drill for two hours, and then make up the classes that they've missed. Ain't quite fair, we're thinking.

And more too. We must be forgetting. In times like these, the commemoration of the Armistice of the last war seems to be far more important than . . . celebration of a persecuted cliché dropping on their knee sin thanks at Plymouth Rock . . . or perhaps even the birth of a tiny Judean in Bethlehem. We may be wrong, but does a national, and even international, holiday have to be commercialized to exist. Shall we dedicate the cause of democracy to twenty-five more shopping days till Armistice . . . or change its date by Presidential proclamation . . . in order for it to exist. Have we forgotten; or is it just not in keeping with "policy."

No, gentlemen of the faculty who voted this last move, we realize that it is, in part, a celebration of the day that many of you were glad to see. But don't think that you had more part in it than we. For the science of war has progressed far since you faced it . . . and the hell into which we graduate should be far more horrible. We'd like to remember this Armistice Day and visualize the second . . . but you seem to think that those two hours of instruction are far more important. Two hours that shell-fire and shrapnel may soon erase. We just can't seem to forget that not only was it you and your generation that botched this mess the first time they handled it . . . but also that it is you and your

Miners May Tie for First; Springfield Out of Race

By Ed Goetemann

With the current grid season rapidly drawing to a close, we no longer see the far-famed Springfield Bears on the top of the heap in the MIAA conference. Knocked down to a tie for first place last week as a result of the Miners' 3 to 0 victory over them, they found themselves off the top of the ladder completely this week, when the Mules of Warrensburg handed them their third straight defeat Saturday. The Mules began the season with a strong defensive team, but they had little offensive power. After playing two scoreless ties against the Miners and Cape Girardeau, they came back to polish off Kirksville and now Springfield to find themselves in first place with a record of two wins and two ties against no defeats.

The Mules capitalized on breaks

Miner Cagers Oppose High School Tonight

Coach Percy Gill's Missouri School of Mines freshmen cagers will square off tonight at 7:45 o'clock against the Rolla High School basketball team in a regulation game at the MSM gymnasium. Gill indicated he will start Carlton and Fris at the forwards, Hoffman will play center, and Jim Nevin and Wolbring will handle the guard duties. The high school lineup is unknown.

to beat the Bears 7 to 0. In the second quarter Jolley Dazadyk was back to kick for Springfield on his own 17 yard line, but the pass from center was bad and Dazadyk's boot was blocked by Pete Elliot, the Mules' great center, and recovered by tackle Coffman to give the Mules possession on Springfield's 14. After being thrown for a seven yard loss, Warrensburg's fullback Porter Robb, dropped back and tossed a touchdown pass to halfback Charles Richardson and he went 21 yards to score. The Mules threatened again when all MIAA guard Baltrusaitis leaped up from nowhere to intercept one of Bumpus' heaves and fought his way to the 10 before being brought down. In three plays the Mules smashed to the one foot line, but the Bears stiffened and on the fourth down Kaminsky broke through to spill Richardson for a three yard loss to thwart the drive.

Maryville muffed a chance of taking undisputed possession of second place Saturday when they were held to a tie by the Kirksville Bulldogs.

The Miners made it two straight Friday afternoon when they took to the air to defeat Cape Girardeau 20 to 0, moving into a tie with Maryville for second place in the conference. The muddy field kept ground gaining at a minimum, so the Miners unfurled their best passing attack of the year, with fullback Al Dick passing for two touchdowns.

We Can Tie For First—IF With but one game to play, the Miners have a possibility of going into a tie for first place in the MIAA conference. However, there are a number of big IF's. First of all, the Miners have to take their final conference game with Kirksville here next Saturday. Besides this, Maryville will have to trip the league leading Warrensburg Mules in their final conference game. If all these IF's come through the Miners and the Bearcats of Maryville will move into a tie for the MIAA championship.

INTRAMURAL Sports

By Charlie Mitchell

The Pi Kappa Alpha football team had a regular field day at the expense of the Sophs on Monday night as they romped over them 33-0. The fraternity men were paced by their quarterback and captain, Gordon Hartcorn, a left half, and Ehrlich, an end, were instrumental in the point gaining. Ehrlich accounted for two touchdowns. After this walk-away it seems as if Pi Kappa Alpha is going to make a strong bid for the title.

The Theta Kappa Phi team pushed Lambda Chi Alphas all over the field in another one-sided tilt which ended 20-2.

On Tuesday the two most exciting games of the tournament were fought. In the first game the Juniors nosed out the Triangles by the extra kick rule.

This game ended in a 7-7 tie and each team was allowed three free kicks. Neustaeder, kicking for the Juniors, outkicked his opponent and won the game 8-7 for the Juniors.

The fighting Seniors again showed their ability in one of the most outstanding games intramural competition has seen in a long time. Trailing Sigma Nu by two touchdowns and fifty-five seconds to play, the Seniors opened up and came out victorious 22-0.

Crookston shone for the upper classmen with his two touchdown passes. Haas, Eisman, and Jim Nevin scored the points.

The schedule is not known as yet, but with the Seniors and Pi-KA going the way they are if such a game is played it will be a game well worth watching.

John Metcalfe, Expert Spy And Ace Reporter, Will Lecture Wednesday

John Metcalfe, famous spy expert will present a lecture about his ten years of secret experiences in exposing spies, saboteurs, and propagandists in the United States entitled "Grave Diggers of Democracy." According to comments made on his lecture, the talk is based on facts, truth, accuracy, and proof. He is America's ace newspaper reporter who first focused national attention to the problem of subversive movements. He is the holder of the silver plaque of the National Headliners Club, for exposing the German-American Bund. He spent six months inside the Bund, disguised as an active member, storm trooper, national speaker and secret agent for Fritz Kuhn. He is responsible for the creation of the Dies Committee on Un-American Activities, and has served as agent in charge of Nazi and Fascist investigations for the committee. He was the first to warn of widespread spy, sabotage and alien propaganda activities, naming many of the agitators who have since been brought to justice by the Federal Government. He stands on his record and assumes full responsibility for the conclusions he draws and the new disclosures he presents on the lecture platform.

Walter Winchell said about Mr. Metcalfe, "He is one of America's greatest newspapermen." Congressman Martin Dies said, "Mr. Metcalfe knows more about the Nazi and Fascist problem in the United States than any other person in the nation." The Chicago Daily Times printed that, "The 'Times' is proud of what his news reporting enterprise accomplished." The St. Louis Post Dispatch praised Mr. Metcalfe by writing that, "John Metcalfe is outstandingly competent to discuss Nazi propaganda activities in this country."

His lecture will begin at eight o'clock Wednesday evening and will be in the auditorium in Park Hall. Admission will be by activity ticket.
